Re : Letter of recommendation of Mr Giulio Alvaro Cortesi

To Whom It May Concern

Dear Colleagues,

It is my great pleasure to write this letter of recommendation for Mr. Giulio Alvaro Cortesi, who collaborated with our academic team throughout the academic year as a seminar instructor in Comparative Constitutional Law and Comparative Political Systems at the Paris-Est Créteil University (France).

During this period, Mr. Cortesi demonstrated outstanding academic competence, professionalism, and dedication to teaching. In addition to conducting seminars with remarkable rigor and clarity, he also served as team coordinator, overseeing the work and evaluation process related to more than 500 students. This role required not only strong organizational skills, but also exceptional leadership, reliability, and the ability to manage complex academic responsibilities efficiently and fairly.

Mr. Cortesi consistently distinguished himself through his excellent communication skills and collegial spirit. His interactions with students, fellow team members, and faculty were always respectful, constructive, and highly professional. He maintained an exemplary level of cooperation and responsiveness, contributing significantly to the positive functioning of the teaching team.

As a lecturer, he was always impeccably prepared for his classes. His seminars were intellectually engaging, methodologically rigorous, and carefully structured. He possesses the rare ability to explain complex constitutional and political concepts with clarity and precision while encouraging critical thinking and active student participation. His pedagogical approach combined academic depth with accessibility, making him particularly effective in working with diverse groups of students.

Beyond his teaching abilities, Mr. Cortesi showed great intellectual curiosity, analytical capacity, attention to detail, and a strong sense of responsibility. He approached every task with seriousness and integrity, consistently delivering work of the highest quality. His commitment to academic excellence and to the success of his students was evident throughout the year.

I can state without hesitation that Mr. Giulio Alvaro Cortesi carried out all of his responsibilities in an exemplary manner. I am confident that he will distinguish himself with the same level of excellence, professionalism, and intellectual dedication in any academic or professional environment.

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you require any additional information.
